In fall 2015, University of Oregon professor Judith Raiskin will teach two courses in Siena, Italy, alongside local Italian faculty. Enroll in Professor Raiskin's courses “Italy and the Art of Travel Writing” and “Imagining Italy through Film.” Travel in the footsteps of major writers and filmmakers who have imagined Italy, study their various representations of Italian places and people, and learn how to write your own travel essays.

New UO application deadline: May 20, 2015
For more information please visit: studyabroad.uoregon.edu